Jackson, TN- Terrell L. Harris, United States Attorney for the Western District of Tennessee announced that on Tuesday, August 20, 2002 Lydell Moore was sentenced to 151 months in prison for distribution of crack cocaine. Moore entered a guilty plea on May 13, 2002. U.S. District Court Judge James Todd sentenced Moore as a career offender. When sentencing Moore, Judge Todd informed him that "Congress has determined that multiple offenders must be taken off the streets and you fit that description." Asst. U.S. Attorney Vic Ivy prosecuted the case. Harris and Ivy praised the work of the Jackson Police Department Gang Enforcement Team for their work in the prosecution.
